SPECIAL GALA 700TH MEETING ENHANCED MENU AND SOUVENIRS

H. BRADFORD WASHBURN, JR: MATTERHORN, McKINLEY AND EVEREST

Brad Washburn is very well known to us all as a Club Medalist and of course as the man who led the building of the Museum of Science into the outstanding institution it is day. He holds AB, MA and DHL (Hon) degrees from Harvard and Honorary degrees from many other institutions. He has served on the Boards of Directors of several prominent companies and is a member of numerous clubs and societies relating to exploration and mountaineering. Brad is also noted as a cartographer and photographer, with significant productions in both fields.

In this special 700th gala meeting of the Club, Brad will tell us about three of the mountains with which he has particular experience; the Matterhorn, Mount McKinley and Mount Everest. Brad's climbs, exploration and cartography of this trio of spectacular and most noted peaks of their respective continents include unforgettable milestones in the history of mountaineering which he will describe for us tonight.
