Come Celebrate Our 850th Meeting

January 12, 2016 January 12, 2016

90 Degrees Latitude and Longitude...Incredible!

The Speaker will be Wendy Booker
Accomplished Mountaineer, Adventurer and Explorer

She climbed six of the seven summits; made two attempts at Everest; ran twelve marathons and embarked to the North and South Poles, all after her diagnosis with MS.

Her feats have been featured on CBS Sunday Morning, Late Night with Craig Ferguson, and in the N Y Times, Chicago Tribune and the Financial Times.

She will take us to the South Pole on a cross country ski trek and to the North Pole by dogsled and ski expedition.

Not only will we be celebrating with a special speaker, but also a special dinner, and a special memento by which to remember the occasion. The dinner is a re-creation of that served at the 72nd meeting, on December 12, 1911, at the Exchange Club in Boston, where Theodore Roosevelt described his then just-completed East African safari. Hors d'oeuvres will be served during the cocktail hour. A special memento of the occasion will be provided to all Members who attend the meeting. Extras will be available for purchase.
